

Caledonia Spay Day - 7th January 2016
Rural Animal Care with VAWZ Mobile Clinic

Dogs start arriving for the clinic

On a bicycle made for six

Angus & Sarah check out the pups

223 Dogs waited for the dreaded dip

... As loathsome as it is life-giving

The local chief delivers some dogs

The truck provides perfect shelter

This old boy gets to sleep with no pain

Shady trees in Caledonia car park

A mother dog comes in for vaccination

Marny powders her flea-ridden pups

They run back to mum for comfort

Boy with a red jacket & gentle dogs

Tiffany with home-made treats...

Puppies peer warily out at the world

Unfazed, one of many beautiful dogs

Orphaned pups & their travelling box

We hear their mother died of rabies

The dog on the left was hospitalized

Deworming & food will sort this out

This poor boy is 'PTS' with distemper

Two beautiful pairs of bright eyes

Toby & Brin are booked for neutering

Adrienne tries new collars on them

Eugene checks weights for pre-meds

Tawanda & I fill in patient details

Edmore shaves & preps a patient

A nervous Socks is anaesthetised

Vet Caro begins her operation

Spay over, Socks reacts noisily

Shan & Tawanda comfort her...

And, fully awake, she quietens down

Just a few of the 20 sterilizations

Tara sprays Shoo-Fly around them

Shan takes care of them post-op

Writing up vaccination certificates

Owners queue with expectant dogs...

Where's the food?

Whether a casual arm drape

A tight rein or a low-handed sling

Parvo-virus vaccine on ice

Marny & Tiffany fill syringes

Bernard (VAWZ) does vaccinations...

150 rabies, 123 distemper & 24 parvo

And then comes the worm drench...

A treat in store for all these dogs

Wally volunteers her help regularly

Dishing out the food - at last!!

Smiling faces & happy hounds

Dozing with mum on a full tummy...
